

A unique networking and collaborative learning and development opportunity...

How do we place learner need at the heart of curriculum design?

How do you articulate & define learner pathways in your setting? How do you evidence the often unique learning journeys made by your students?

As school leaders how are we being responsive to the key points & issues raised in the SEND & AP Implementation Paper?

With learner & family voice being referenced so heavily how does your school approach authentic co-production when designing provision & the curriculum?

What curriculum approaches or pedagogy have you adopted or adapted to take into account the increasing developmental complexity, heightened anxiety and other indicators that you are now identifying in your pupils?

How are you working towards the Mental Health aims outlined in the DfE's guidance on Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education?

Reconnecting the community & responding to the ever changing SEND landscape

After 3 years of connecting through virtual platforms we are delighted to share that this spring Efl & LearningShared are hosting a series of regional live events. The complexity threshold has clearly shifted in all of our school communities and against a backdrop of continued challenge we need to be agile & responsive to the needs of learners who are presenting in different ways than we perhaps have ever seen.

In such times of challenge the Efl & LearningShared community comes together in the spirit of collegiality & professional generosity to share expertise and seek collective solutions. We have assembled a range of inspiring leaders & practitioners who will guide our professional learning and conversations as we explore the burning issues around inclusive education & SEND.

Agenda *

The complexity threshold has undoubtedly shifted in recent years and as practitioners we need to be agile, responsive and innovative in the ways in which we support learners.

The LearningShared conference will feature:

- Keynote speeches and workshops
- Ofsted: A headteacher's reflections on a February 2023 inspection
- Case studies
- Most importantly round table discussions providing opportunities to connect, share and learn with colleagues from across the community.
- Networking opportunities over lunch and refreshments

Lunch & refreshments provided.

Diane Rochford OBE: Curriculum Intent & Implementation

In this session Diane will explore approaches to inclusion and curriculum posing a series of questions for roundtable discussion as to whether our language, pathways, themes and curriculum actually meet the needs of the students in our school communities.

How do we place learner need at the heart of curriculum design?

How do you articulate & define learner pathways in your setting? How do you evidence the often unique learning journeys made by your students?

Vijita Patel: National Landscape & regional context for SEND & Inclusion

We are facing very uncertain times with regard to funding, political direction and the very notion of what inclusion means in society. Vijita will share regional & national updates highlighting things we should all have on our radar as we navigate the SEND landscape over the coming weeks and months. Key questions covered in the session include....

As school leaders how are we being responsive to the key points & issues raised in the SEND & AP Implementation Paper

With learner & family voice being referenced so heavily how does your school approach authentic co-production when designing provision & the curriculum?

James Waller: Pupil Wellbeing & Mental Health

In this session James shares the approach to wellbeing from multiple outstanding school Sunningdale. James charts the evolution of need and how Sunningdale has placed wellbeing at the heart of their provision, responding to very unique needs of students whilst maintaining the highest aspirations and standards.

What curriculum approaches or pedagogy have you adopted or adapted to take into account the increasing developmental complexity, heightened anxiety and other indicators that you are now identifying in your pupils?

How are you working towards the Mental Health aims outlined in the DfE's guidance on Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education?

Martin McKenna: Ofsted - What it was really like through the lens of SEND & Inclusion (Feb 2023 Inspection)

Foxfield School was inspected in Feb 2023. In this session Martin shares perspectives, experiences and learning to demystify the inspection process and provide tips as to how leaders can celebrate and champion inclusion in their settings particularly through the use of Evidence for Learning.

Roundtable Discussion & Networking

As with all events we've run in the past, the emphasis of each day will be on discussion, learning and networking... giving you lots of opportunity to meet and forge relationships with new partners and collaborators for your professional networks.

The format of the whole day is roundtable discussion and networking, both structured through our agenda and freeform during lunch and break times.

* This is a very unique opportunity to come together with leaders from across the region and country for a full day of shared learning and networking. ****

Bringing together a large, powerful community of specialist schools & practitioners

The EfL and LearningShared community now comprises more than 700 specialist schools, colleges and alternative provisions across the UK, as well as a rapidly growing number of mainstream schools. Consequently these events will provide a unique and brilliant opportunity for us to come together to directly harness and tap into the phenomenal wealth of knowledge and experience that exists across the community.
